“5. The Supervisory Board shall supervise the internal control system and shall appraise its adequacy and effectiveness at least once a year.”

Article 2

The amendments to the Charter as set out in §1 require approval of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority.

Article 3

The provisions of §19.5 and §26.3 of the Charter as worded under §1.3 and §1.5 hereof shall apply for the first time to the term of office of the Management Board and Supervisory Board running as at the effective date hereof.

Rationale for the draft resolution of the Ordinary General Meeting of ING Bank Śląski Spółka Akcyjna of 5 April 2018 on amendments to the *Charter of ING Bank Śląski S.A.

Amendments to the Charter seek, first and foremost, to bring its wording into line with the current legislation. The relevant modifications include:

1. listing of laws as one of the sources which the Bank factors in when determining the independence criteria for Supervisory Board members (due to the effective entry of the Act on Statutory Auditors, Auditing Firms and Public Oversight of 11 May 2017),
2. adapting the requirements concerning the participation of independent members in the Audit Committee to Article 129.3 of the Act on Statutory Auditors. In line with that provision, the majority of the Audit Committee members, including the Chairperson, are independent from the given public interest entity.
3. deleting the provisions concerning compliance risk management from the section concerning the risk management system due to those aspects being embedded in the internal control system (as per Article 9c.1.4 of the Banking Law Act),

4. highlighting the role of the Supervisory Board as to internal control system supervision.

Another element of the draft resolution is an amendment to the provisions of the Charter regulating the manner in which the term of office of members of Bank authorities is computed; the said amendment was made to avoid potential doubts pertaining to the resolution of the Supreme Court of 24 November 2016 (case no. III CZP 72/16). As the said resolution asserts, the last financial year which started during the term of office of a member of the supervisory board of a joint-stock company is the last full financial year under Article 369 §4 in conjunction with Article 386 §2 of the Commercial Companies and Partnerships Code Act (the same rule applies to management board members).

Under Article 369 §4 of the Commercial Companies and Partnerships Code Act, the mandate the management board member shall expire on the day of the General Meeting which approves the financial statements for the last full financial year of his/her term of office. Under Article 386 §2 of the Commercial Companies and Partnerships Code Act, the said provision shall apply to the supervisory board members accordingly. The interpretation concerning the expiry of the mandate in the light of Article 369 §4 of the Commercial Companies and Partnerships Code Act gives rise to doubts about the legal doctrine. So far, the Bank considered the last full financial year of the term of office to be the last full financial year fully covered by the term of office.

The intention of the Bank is to formulate the provisions of the Charter in the manner enabling explicit determination of the expiry of the mandate while retaining the current Bank's practice as to the length of the mandate. Amendment of the provisions of §§ 19 and 26 of the Charter results in the situation where the term of office of the Bank authorities is to expire always upon the expiry of the fourth full financial year. Under these circumstances, there should be no doubts about the manner of understanding of the last full financial year of holding the function and the expiry of the mandate of members of the authorities under Article 369 §4 of the Commercial Companies and Partnerships Code Act, that is on the day of the General Meeting which approves the financial statements for the last full financial year of his/her term of office. At the same time, the actual mandate of the members of the Bank Management Board and Supervisory Board will remain the same as applicable under the current Bank's practice of determining the expiry of the mandate due to the expiry of the term of office whose length was set at 5 years.

At the same time, taking into account the purpose of the amendments made, whereby the potential interpretation doubts are deleted, it is justified to apply the principle of term of office computation as introduced with the resolution to the pending terms of office of the Bank Management Board and Supervisory Board.

The remaining amendments are of editorial nature.
